Presidents Message

With the holiday season is upon us, I encourage everyone to take time and reflect on the gifts and blessings in your life. Spend time with family and loved ones, reconnect with those who you have lost contact with, give back to your communities, eat, rejoice, be merry, and above all else, be kind. We work in a profession where many have to work and sacrifice celebrating the holiday with loved ones. I implore everyone to keep all staff in your thoughts and prayers, not only for the upcoming holidays, but every day.

The Fall Officers' meeting was conducted virtually on November 16, 2023. The discussions centered on how to increase membership and how we can work together to promote membership in states with no or low membership. Our membership numbers are hovering around 1,500. The goal for several years now, has been to grow our membership to 2,000. The battle between Arkansas and Georgia is not limited to football field, they also battle over which state has the highest membership. I am here to tell you, the competition is intense and our association has room for all states to jump on the friendly banter wagon. In fact, I encourage each and every member to reach out and find one new member. If this was accomplished, our membership would exceed 3,000! 'Tis the season for this Cajun girl to dream. Let's GEAUX!

The Louisiana Host team is working diligently to ensure the 2024 Summer Conference will be one for the books. Elves are busy scouting off-site venues, contacting vendors and tying up all the loose ends. We welcome you all back to the beautiful Capitol Center Hilton, located in downtown Baton Rouge, where entertainment, shopping and restaurants are within walking distance from the hotel.

True to form, Louisiana has to do things a bit differently and in an effort to reduce the costs to all attendees. Please take note of the training dates and days.

Mid-Winter dates are Sunday, February 18, 2024, through Tuesday, February 20, 2024. Sunday - travel day; Monday - committee meetings/ training/ diner outing; Tuesday - Board Meeting and adjourn.

Summer Training Conference dates are Sunday, July 14, 2024, through Friday, July 19, 2024. Sunday - travel day / early registration; Monday - Committee meetings / early registration; Tuesday - Golf tournament / Opening ceremony; Wednesday - training sessions / Louisiana Night; Thursday - Training sessions/ award banquet / Arkansas Night; Friday - Business meeting and adjourn.

In closing, I would like to express to you my appreciation and gratitude for the contributions you make to Southern States Correctional Association and to your respective communities, each and every day. Wishing you all a safe and prosperous Holiday Season and New Year!

Renee'

Merry Christmas From Your SSCA Board of Directors

SSCA Member Jarrod Self Participates in SAMSHA Conference

Arkansas SSCA member Jarrod Self was invited to attend and participate in the SAMSHA (Substance Abuse Mental Health Services Administration) Lifted Lived Experience in Criminal Justice Settings Dialogue Meeting in Washington DC. As part of the conference, he was part of a panel discussion, The panel was made up of 5 corrections professionals. He says that he was happy to share about the programs in Arkansas, not just “Reentry” but all of Arkansas Corrections. Mr. Self commented “Arkansas is definitely ahead of the curve. Since the conference I have been in contact with various entities across the nation, sharing our success and failures with the common goal of reducing recidivism.”

Lt Jackson supervises Community Work Crew program At CACCC in Little Rock Arkansas

In 2014, Pine Bluff native Juliet Jackson was named a Southeastern Conference Legend as she became a University of Arkansas (UA) Hall of Famer. From 1986 to 1990, Jackson was an integral member of the University of Arkansas' two most successful sports teams.

During her freshman year, the Razorbacks won the Women's National Invitational Tournament, beating California 112-80 in the championship game. In her senior season, Arkansas beat Texas, ending their NCAA-record 183-game conference winning streak and the nation's longest home winning streak at 47 games. Jackson aided in the Razorbacks' 82-77 win with four clutch free throws, which helped earn the team a 12-1 road record and a Southwestern Conference (SWC) regular-season title. That season, during the NCAA tournament, Jackson scored 30 points assisting her seventh-seeded Arkansas team to beat UCLA in overtime and upset the highly ranked Georgia team. Though Arkansas made the Elite Eight, they fell short of the Final Four, losing to tournament champion Stanford, 114-87.

During an interview with the Northwest Arkansas Democrat-Gazette, Jackson said, "I enjoyed all of my time spent (in Fayetteville). I would have to say my senior year was the best. It was the year we beat Texas to end their big winning streak and the year we went to the Elite Eight."

As a two-time SWC second-team honoree, Jackson is currently top 20 in Arkansas history in both points and assists. She ranks 11th in career assists with 313. She also averaged 10.1 points per game and scored 1,213 points making her 17th in UA career history.

Jackson's prolific basketball career did not start at the University of Arkansas, though. In 1983, Jackson met coach Jim Tyler while playing in a basketball game in Benton. According to Jackson, "He is one of the coaches that got me interested in playing AAU ball. That's what really changed my future." Thanks to donations made at Pine Bluff area banks, in the summer of 1984, Jackson and Tyler's Arkansas Angels AAU team played basketball in Sweden, Finland, and Norway.

After entering Pine Bluff High School, Jackson racked up numerous honors. In 1984, as a sophomore in track and field, she earned all-America honors in the 4x400 meter relay. In basketball, she was the Gatorade player of the year for Arkansas, a Parade Magazine All-American, and an All-American by the National High School Athletic Coaches Association. In 1985, Jackson earned Most Valuable Player of the 18-and-under national AAU Tournament in Fairfax, Va., after averaging 24 points per game for the Angels. Jackson is arguably the most decorated women's athlete in Pine Bluff High history.

Jackson coached AAU for six or seven years but had to give it up when she took a new job at the Arkansas Community Corrections facility in Pine Bluff. When asked about her time coaching AAU, Jackson said, "Through coaching AAU, I think I have given that much back to the community that it gave to me."

Central Arkansas Community Correction Centre Starts Urban Garden

Staff and residents at the Central Arkansas Community Correction Center in Little Rock started an urban garden this year with the help of local businesses. Seed, compost, fertilizer and supplies were donated and the residents went to work. The garden produced potatoes, peppers, carrots, okra, corn, tomatoes, cucumbers, squash, and cantelope. All of the proceeds were consumed by our resident population. CACCC was also able to supplement our harvest with fresh produce grown at the Grimes Unit in Newport, AR. There we received additional cantelope, watermelons, and corn. The final picture shown above is a tray we were able to serve to the entire resident population that every ingredient, besides the beef, was grown on ARDOC land by inmates and residents. This photo was posted to FaceBook where it received almost 50,000 “likes”, 4,200 comments and almost 6,000 shares from people and organizations all over the world.

US Marshals arrest Arkansas escapee in West Virginia

WASHINGTON — The U.S. Marshals, along with West Virginia State Police, Lewisburg Police Department and Greenbrier County Sheriff's Office, this afternoon arrested at the Quality Inn in Lewisburg, West Virginia, a man who escaped from an Arkansas prison facility in 2022.

Samuel Paul Hartman, 39, an inmate at the East Arkansas Regional Unit, was sentenced to life in 2013 after being convicted of raping his 14-year-old stepdaughter, but he escaped on a work detail in a field near the detention facility.

Also taken into custody were Hartman's wife Misty Hartman, 39, his mother Linda Annette White, 61, and White's boyfriend Rodney Trent, 52, of Lester, West Virginia. Both women are alleged to have helped Hartman escape using a pickup truck and jet skis. Trent faces felony charges for allegedly harboring a sex offender and for assisting the trio while on the run.

While Hartman was on a work detail Aug. 12, 2022, a vehicle approached the work crew, and two women, later identified as Linda White and Misty Hartman, exited the vehicle and fired several shots toward the work crew as inmate Hartman ran to the awaiting vehicle. The vehicle then fled as DOC officers pursued. DOC pursued the vehicle to the area just short of the Mississippi river where all three fled to two pre-staged jet skis.

After a short time, law enforcement officers from Mississippi and Arkansas went to the Mississippi side of the river and located the abandoned jet skis on the riverbank. An eyewitness on the Mississippi side of the river reported seeing one man and two women riding jet skis across the river.

In March, USMS investigators from the agency's Cold and Complex Case Unit paired up with investigators from the Eastern District of Arkansas to find the three. Investigators developed information that Linda White had ties to West Virginia and contacted the Southern District of West Virginia for assistance in the case.

"Today's announcement is the culmination of a year of outstanding, dedicated work by our heroic law enforcement officers. Now that they have brought this dangerous fugitive to justice, all Arkansans can sleep safer at night," said Governor Sarah Huckabee Sanders.

"Today's capture was the result of deliberate and determined law enforcement work," said Joe Profiri, Secretary of the Arkansas Department of Corrections. "The United States Marshals Service, Arkansas State Police, and the Arkansas Department of Corrections have kept this case on the forefront and followed hundreds of leads over the course of the last year. We appreciate the support and assistance from all agencies involved, the Arkansas Governor's office, and the State of West Virginia in bringing this case to a successful conclusion."

"In my nearly 30 years of law enforcement, I cannot recall a task force that has the level of dedication to accomplishing the mission and making our communities safer than that of CUFFED (Cops United Felony Fugitive Enforcement Division Task Force)," said Michael Baylous, U.S. Marshal for the Southern District of West Virginia. "The apprehension of these dangerous fugitives demonstrates the close and outstanding relationship that CUFFED enjoys with our local and state partners, other USMS Districts, and the USMS Domestic Investigations Branch."

SSCA Catastrophic Weather Fund

A silent auction is held at every July SSCA conference to support the Catastrophic Weather Fund, please bring any items you wish to donate to the auction with you to the summer conference, or contact Cookie Crews, Executive Secretary, for shipping information. Also, be reminded that the fund is in place to provide needed assistance to SSCA members who have maintained their SSCA Membership for a minimum of one (1) year, and have sustained a recent loss due to a catastrophic weather event.

A catastrophic weather event is defined as a hurricane, tornado or flood that has been labeled as such by the National Weather Service. Once a catastrophic event has been declared by the National Weather Service, members of SSCA may apply, in writing, to their State Representative for assistance. The State Representative will then forward the request, with an attached explanation of the nature and circumstances of the loss, to the Chairperson of the Catastrophic Weather Fund Committee. The committee will consider requests on a "first come first served basis," until the fund is depleted. The State Representatives' names and contact information are found in the Concourse, or on our website at www.sscaweb.org.
